BARCELONA ON WHEELS

This tour takes all Barcelona visitors with little time but a lot of discovery spirit through the busy streets of Barcelona. A chauffeur picks you up at the hotel and a tour guide will show you in a few hours the city's highlights. Enjoy the bustling Las Ramblas comfortable in the car and learn more about the former largest flower market in the city.

The first stop is in front of the Columbus Monument where you can learn more about the explorer of America. We continue along Via Laietana where we make a stop at the Cathedral of Barcelona and the Palau de la Musica. Following the Arc de Triumph is visited and before the famous Sagrada Familia will be in our sight, we will stop at the former most important bullfighting arena.

Right after Gaudi's first masterpiece it goes on to the second Gaudi highlight the Gaudi Park Guell. From there we aim to impressive Passeig de Gracia and visit La Pedrera and Casa Batllo. After we honor a great artist already in our tour we going to do this with another great one, at the Joan Miro Park. Right next to the Park we will see another bullfighting arena, which was converted into a shopping mall.

Later we cross the Placa Espana and go up to the mountain of Montjuic to the national palace, to explore the Olympic area and the old castle. The grand finale of the tour is the unique view over the whole beautiful city of Barcelona before we go down into the city center and bring you back to your hotel.

Barcelona on wheels is perfect for those who have not much time to explore the city, like short time travelers, cruise ship guests and business people. But everybody who is maybe not able to do a walking tour because of health issues appreciates this tour with its comfortable transportation option.

TOUR TO MONTSERRAT

The tour starts in Plaza Catalunya where your driver and your guide will pick you up and take you to Montserrat. The journey from Barcelona to Montserrat takes about 50 minutes.

The picturesque route takes you along the Llobregat River to the foot of the spectacular Montserrat mountain. On the way, your guide will entertain you with tales, history and legends of the mountain, and the monastery and shrine you will see later in the afternoon.

Long before you reach Montserrat, you will see the jagged silhouette of the great mountain and understand how it got its name ('serrat' means 'serrated'). This massive rock fortress is more than 1200m (4000 feet) high and dotted with paths, stairs, caves, chapels and hermitages. You will drive through the Natural Park and up to the Sanctuary 725m (2380 feet) above sea level. On a clear day you will see breath-taking panoramas of the Pyrenees.

When you arrive, you will enjoy a 1-hour tour of Montserrat, during which your guide will point out the main places of interest.

You will see the Benedictine monastery, nearly 1000 years old, perched half way up the mountain and sheltered by its peaks. You will also see the basilica with the Chapel of Our Lady of Montserrat. Known as La Moreneta, or the Black Virgin, she is the patron saint of Catalonia, and is a presence strongly felt and revered. The basilica is full of the most beautiful paintings, gold lamps and decorated chapels.

There is also a fascinating museum (charges apply) – with paintings by El Greco, Picasso and Dalí among many others – as well as treasures from ancient Egypt. You will also find an interesting audiovisual exhibition about Montserrat (charges apply).

After the guided tour, you will have around 1 hour and 20 minutes to dedicate to the aspects of this beautiful and spiritual place that interest you most, before we drive you back to Barcelona.
